

The first page appeared in the Unfnrz7Am mu! .AlntigucA2aiAm uwrzzctl of lontrcal. ,Iron the limited amount of space in that periodical, the paper was divided into two parts, and as that Il FlfALZ III($ appears but once in three months, the interval which took place during its publication--from July to Novemhcr last-went far to destroy all interest in its perusal. The writer has, consequently, determined to republish it in a connected form, as a chapter of Canadian history. He considers, that although representing a past order of events, a narrative of those days will ever interest all who feel pride in the assured progress of the Dominion. and who appreciate the blessings ofthe constitutional rnlc under which we live.
